TRUISMS.

The meanest face you look upon, the clay of coarsest mould,
Thro' which no ray of spirit-day, close-watching, you behold:
Where petty cares have dimmed the glance, and furrowed in the brow,
And evil thought assign has wrought beyond erasing now—

This form so mean, so cold, so slow, this seeming soulless clay,
Wore once the grace of a baby-face, and the beauty of childhood's day;
Those eyes once gazed with eager trust, above, around, below,
And a mother with pride that was hard to hide, pushed the hair from the open brow.

The proudest heart that wakes your pride by the evil spell of sin,
The harshest tone that makes hoarse your own, if there be no watch within;
The most unloving, unloved soul that can slight your hope or fear,
And careless look down on your smile or frown, as if from a separate sphere—

That nature cold and proud must yet mysterious terrors know,
Must wrestle with Death for each gasping breath, must be laid in the dust below;
That voice must sink into whispers faint, and meekest service crave,
And that hand must cling to some humble thing in sinking from the grave.

Familiar thought, I own, to call this truth of our common lot,
Yet midst jar and strife of the daily life, its lesson is forgot.
We pity withold from the haughty dust that must shroud and pall endure,
And with loathing shun some world-stained one that was once a baby pure.

Not worthy in vain were the fancy tasked from the actual off to turn
To the rosy sleep only cradles keep, to the shades of the funeral urn;
The present may all loveless seem: be o'er it a memory cast,
Of the first low cry and the last sad sigh—of the Future and the Past.

THE AMERICAN CHURCH OF CHRIST.

BY AMERICANDA.

CHAPTER VII.

The Great Rebellion against Constitutional Liberty.

Before the final consummation of American glory, and the awarding of civil and religious freedom to a ransomed world, it is to be expected that the genius of monarchy will summon all her force for the continued supremacy of empire, and that her last conflict will doubtless be terrible. Her death-throes may shake the illustrious fabric of our Union, but it will only settle it to a firmer basis of strength and grandeur, against which her power will prevail no more forever.

That a great war would finally take place between the genius of Freedom and the genius of Oppression, has long been the belief of civilized man; and from the declarations of Divine Inspiration we are forced to the conclusion that the last great struggle between Liberty and Despotism is going on in America; that it will not close until the vast system of monarchical oppression shall be destroyed, and Liberty, from the car of her triumph, throw the mantle of her glory around our continent, illumining with peace and knowledge all within her shadow.

The genius of civil and religious freedom has ever yielded her rights and claims to the power of Despotism, and suffered her children to bow to the chains and tortures of monarchial usurpation, through all her reign, down to the present time, when Liberty is to cease forbearing, and begin to assert her rights, and by the uplifted arm of avenging justice, consign to her native place the despotic monster that has for centuries fed and fattened on the life and treasure of bound and bleeding man.

In the last days of the fourth great monarchy, the days in which we now live, the stone that was cut out of the mountain, or the Stone Kingdom, was to smite, or destroy by war, the great image of monarchy, and to break it in pieces until it should be found no more, and the Stone, or kingdom of Gospel Liberty, that smote the image to pieces, become a great mountain, or government, and fill the whole earth with her glory, which is now being fulfilled in the republic of America.

And as she is the only nationality which has constitutionally established civil and religious liberty on earth, and is now filling the world with the wealth of her science, the beauty of her art, the wonders of her inventions, and the glory of her free institutions, she not only fills the description of the Stone Kingdom, both as to time and character, but she is smiting the great image of Despotism to pieces, which proves her to be the mountain, or government, which is to fill the whole earth with the blessings of liberty: and that this war is the smitings of her power against the whole system of despotism, under whatever form it may appear.

In the 13th chapter of the prophecy of Jeremiah, after giving the prophet a description of the married state of the Christian Israel, or the American Union, under the similitude of a dismembered girdle, the great Sovereign of the world instructed the holy seer to say unto those that "would not hear," his word, that he would "not pity nor spare, nor have mercy, but destroy them" for their pride, and for making captives of the "Lord's flock," and closes by commanding the prophet to tell the rulers of the Principalities, or States of the South, the dreadful destiny that awaited them for their rebellion against the purest government that ever blessed the world.

"The cities of the South shall be shut up, and none shall open them. Judah shall be carried away captive, all of it, it shall be wholly carried away captive. Lift up your eyes and behold them that come from the North: where is the flock that was given thee, thy beautiful flock? What wilt thou say when he shall punish thee? for thou hast taught them to be captains, and chiefs over thee: shall not sorrows take thee, as a woman in travail? and if thou say in thine heart, Wherefore came these things upon me? For the greatness of thine iniquity are thy skirts discovered, and thy heels made bare. Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? Then may you also do good, that are accustomed to do evil. Therefore will I scatter them as the stubble that passeth away by the wind of the wilderness. This is thy lot, the portion of thy measure from me, saith the Lord: because thou hast forgotten me, and trusted in falsehood. Therefore will I discover thy skirts upon thy face, that thy shame may appear. I have seen thine adulteries and thy neighings, the lewdness of thy whoredom, and thine abominations on the hills and in the fields. Woe unto thee, O Jerusalem! wilt thou not be made clean? When shall it once be?" JER. XIII. 19th to 27th inclusive.

"The cities of the South shall be shut up." This has been done by a general blockade of all their ports, from one end of their vast territory to the other.

"And none shall open them." Not being able to open them themselves, they have applied to all the great powers of Europe to assist in breaking up the blockade, but without success. None shall open them until they submit to the government and laws of the United States.

"Judah shall be carred away captive, all of it, it shall be wholly carried away captive." As Egypt was the first representative of monarchial despotism, so Judah was the first representative of monarchial servitude, and in this case alludes to Southern slavery, the last relic of despotism in America, which shall finally be destroyed or "carried away captive, all of it."

"Light up your eyes an behold them that come from the north."

Behold an army of a million of well disciplined soldiers, all armed with the most deadly weapons of modern warfare. They come to subdue rebellion and to restore constitutional rectitude over all the revolted States, although it cost the blood and treasure of half the nation.

"Where is the flock that was given thee, thy beautiful flock?" No nation under heaven has had such blessings conferred upon them as the States of the South now in rebellion against the Constitution, under the name of a Confederacy. Her climate, soil and situation, for comfort, wealth and beauty, exceed the lovely lands of storied lore. Her vales of fruits, her hills of vines, her fields of corn, her brakes of cane, her groves of orange, her plains of rice, her realms of cotton, her cooling founts, her silvery streams, her chrystal rivers, her glassy lakes, her spacious harbors, her mines of gold, and climes of sweet perpetual spring, make her the garden of the world. But the flock of blessing so profusely lavished upon the people of the South are now no longer theirs. The Constitutional armies of the North and West are crushing their rebellious Confederacy to atoms, nor will they cease until the last vestage of treason shall be swept from the continent, while the only relic that shall remain of their Southern Confederacy shall be the graves of her slaughtered people, and the wreck of her desolation.

"What wilt thou say when he shall punish thee?" The constitutional powers of our great nationality shall punish them with the sword, and with confiscation, until rebellion, smitten to its horrid charnel, shall never know a resurrection.

"For thou hast taught them to be captains and as chiefs over thee." In the wars for the spread of human servitude she, the South, taught our soldiers to be veterans and chieftains over them.

"And if thou say in thy heart, wherefore come these things upon me. For the greatness of thine iniquity are thy skirts discovered and thy heels made bare." The greatness of the iniquity of the South consisted: first, in their oppression, second, in their treachery, and third, in the most wicked rebellion that ever cursed the world. These are the sins that have brought her to sorrow and dessolation.

"Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? then may you do good that are accustomed to do evil." As much as to say, is color a crime, that it should be oppessed forever? or should the leopard be punished because of his spots? then may the evil do good.

"Therefore will I scatter them as the stubble that passeth away." Their strong fortresses shall be taken, their huge armies scattered to the winds, and their leaders destroyed, until their forces, like the stubble, disappear forever.

"This is thy lot, the portion of thy measures from me, saith the Lord: because thou hast forgotten me, and trusted in falsehood, therefore will I discover thy skirts, that thy shame may appear." Destruction is the lot and portion of all, both men and nations, who forget God, especially those who are determined to maintain the hoary system of monarchal bondage—that one portion of mankind is born to govern the other without their consent—and no greater falsehood can curse the South than the despotic principle in which her aristocracy have so long trusted, that wealthy birth and blood should rule, and that the rich should own the poor.

"I have seen thine adulteries, and thy neighings, the lewdness of thy whoredoms and abominations on the hills and in the fields." The effects of these dreadful sins are seen in the almost countless number of amalgamated and illegitimate descendants that everywhere populate the regions of the South.

"Woe unto thee O Jerusalem, wilt thou not be made clean: when shall it once be?" Even the Church within her borders, in its various branches, has proved unclean, and become corrupt, and allied itself to the minions of monarchy and rebellion against the government of Gospel liberty and restoration, and has refused to be made clean. "Woe unto thee O Jerusalem," or woe unto the wicked Church of the South. Her members shall perish by the sword and her ministers be mingled with her slain. Her churches shall become hospitals for her dying and her dead, and her altars, stained with blood, shall become desolate, and mourning and woe shall fill every province, until her whole confederacy shall become clensed of treason, rebellion and anarchy, and her people brought beneath the starred escutcheon of civil and religious freedom.

TRUE INDEPENDENCE.—Soon after his establishment in Philadelphia, Franklin was offered a piece for publication in his newspaper. Being very busy, he begged the gentleman would leave it for consideration. The author called and asked his opinion of it. "Why, sir," replied Franklin, "I am sorry to say that I think it highly scurrillous and defamatory. But being at a loss, on account of my poverty whether to reject it or not, I thought I would put it to this issue—at night, when my work was done, I bought a two-penny loaf, on which, with a mug, I supped heartily, and then wrapping myself in my great coat, slept very soundly on the floor till morning; when another loaf and a mug of water afforded me a pleasant breakfast. Now, sir, since I can live very comfortably in this manner, why should I prostitute my press to personal hatred or party passion, for a more luxurous living?"

One cannot read this anecdote of our American sage without thinking of Socrates reply to King Archelaus, who had pressed him to give up preaching in the dirty streets of Athens, and come and live with him in his splendid courts—"Meal, please you majesty, is a half-penny a peak, at Athens, and water I can get for nothing."

YANKEE INDIGNATION.—When Arnold's treason was known in Philadelphia, an artist of that city constructed an effigy of him, large as life, and seated him in a cart, with a figure of the devil at his elbow holding a lantern up to the fact of the traitor, to show him to the people, having his name and crime in capital letters. The cart was paraded the whole evening thro' the streets of the city, with drums and fifes playing the rogue's march, with other marks of infamy and was attended by a vast concourse of people. The effigy was finally hanged for the want of the original, and then committed to the flames. Yet this is the man on whom the British bestowed ten thousand pounds sterling, as the price of his treason, and appointed to the rank of brigadier-general in their service. It could scarcely be imagined that there was an officer of honor left in that army, who would debase himself and his commission by serving under or ranking with Benedict Arnold.

The "Poor White Folks" of Virginia.

The low origin and degraded position which has been assigned to the poor people of Virginia, we have heretofore been disposed to consider a slander of their enemies, and a base reflection on their true character. Little education and much ignorance we knew prevailed among that class in the greater part of the State; but that their morals were equally debased we did not believe. But, if the statement of one of her own dignitaries is true, then we are mistaken in our estimate of the moral character of the "poor white folks" of Virginia. While the "blood" of the "first families" may possess a peculiar virtue and power of refinement and transmission, that of the "poor white folks" is hopelessly tainted and corrupted, even beyond the power of art and nature to cleanse and rejuvenate. The evidence of this deplorable degeneracy is not furnished nor manufactured by the detested Yankees, but by a legitimate son of the "old dominion," whose evidence would be received by any court of the commonwealth. Bishop Mead in his gossipy but interesting work on the Old Families of Virginia, says the poor people of the State sprang from culprits who were banished to the State, then a penal colony, and immigrants, who, on their arrival, were sold for a term years for their passage. The female portion of these people were inveterately given to bearing illegitimate children: to such an extent was this the case that the Church vestrymen, who had the care and oversight of the illegitimates, were much perplexed how to stop this mode of increasing population, and what to do with the little strangers when they arrived. As a matter of course, among such a community, there was much immorality. This being the real state of society, the negroes of the "first families" always considered themselves better than the "poor white folks," as they called them, and, says the Bishop, "so indeed they are in many respects." These, then, are the men whose pedigree and character are actually below the negro slaves, that are fighting the battles of the rebellion, not, indeed, to emancipate themselve from a bondage worse than slavery, but to sustain a privileged and aristocratic class, who would in reality make them what they are all but in name, white slaves!—Norfolk Review.

THE DRUNKARD'S SON.—"Mother, this bread is very hard. Why don't we have cake and nice things, as we used to when we lived in the great house? Oh, that was such a great house, mamma, and I did love to live there so. You made sweet music there, mamma, with your fingers when Pa would sing. Pa used to laugh then and take me on his knee, and say I was his own dear boy. What makes Pa sick, Ma? I wish he wasn't sick—for it makes me afraid when he stamps on the floor, and says so loud, 'George go off to bed!' say, when will he get well and take me on his knee and love me as he used to? But Ma, there is a tear in your eye—let me wipe it. There another comes; oh—another! Did I make you cry these tears, mamma?' 'Hush, little innocent, you can not stop your mother's tears; for they are the overflowings of a fountain, filled with blighted hopes, anguish and misery, she cannot tell you when your father will love, for alas, he is a drunkard.'

I heard a beautiful boy, scarcely four years old, lisping this to his mother; and I pitied him to my inmost soul. His father was once rich and happy, and nearly idolized his little son; but in an evil hour he began to sip the intoxicating cup—the habit had grown upon him until the peace of his family was destroyed, and he a tyrant. The beautiful house in which they had lived, was now exchanged for a miserable cottage in the suburbs of the city; and little George doomed to be the companion of the idle and vicious.

CURIOUS DEBT AND CREDIT ACCOUT.—A correspondent of the Northwestern Christian Advocate relates the following anecdote of an Itinerant Methodist preacher in Ohio:

"At the close of service on one Sunday, a gentleman, not a church member, asked him home to spend the night, and when he left in the morning invited him to call whenever it suited his convenience. This the preacher often did, as he passed that way on his circuit, and one day at the end of the year, offered payment for his frequent entertainment. The gentleman brought out an account book, where were charged meals, lodging, horse-keeping, etc., amounting to near twenty dollars. Though surprised, the minister immediately said he had not so much money with him, but he would call and settle before leaving the circuit. "Stop," said his host, "let's examine the other side," and then he showed him a credit of one dollar for every sermon preached in the neighborhood, a sixpence for every blessing asked at the table, and a shilling for every prayer offered in the family, except one where the preacher had knelt on one knee—for this the credit was a sixpence. The account showed three or four dollars due the preacher which was immediately paid over, and they parted on the best of terms."

OUR SHODDY ARISTOCRACY.

Touching our soldiery it may be remarked that 'the First Families of Filadelphy' are not always as decorous or as deferent to them as their gallantry, sacrifices, and manly worth should prompt. A case in point is presented by a correspondent, for the accuracy of which he vouches, and it is as follows:

A short time ago, in our loyal city of Philadelphia, a 'largely' dressed female, answering the description of an F. F. V., hailed a Vine street car. Just as it stopped to take her aboard, a Union soldier stepped out of the same car. On entering several seats were vacant, and the would-be lady inquired in a very sharp tone—

'Where did that soldier sit?'

No answer.

Again, but in a more shrill tone than at first, the same question was put—

'Where did that man sit?'

Still no reply from any one of the passengers, the car going ahead, the 'lady' still unseated, when the same question was fairly spit out between her teeth—

'Where did that man sit?'.

An honest Hiberrian, quietly seated near the unhappy female, and no doubt being desirous of relieving her in some slight degree, replied—

'Faith ma'am, he sit on his end and he took it away with him.'

What the rest of the occupants of the car did, I do not know, but one gentleman left as speedily as possible, and the above information through him was too piquant to be long kept a secret.

MR. SCHENCK IN THE MINISTRY.—A correspondent in Washington sends for insertion in the Phœnix, the following account of "Mr. Schenck in the Ministry," which we quite agree with him in thinking is "altogether to good to be lost:"

"Every one who has heard Hon. Robert C. Schenck speak for the first time, in a case where his feelings were deeply interested, knows what a vivid impression his withering sarcasm and impassioned manner are calculated to produce upon persons unaccustomed to animated debates.

"An unsophisticated Methodist farmer, who lived in a distant part of the country, and whose avocation seldom called him 'to Court,' accidently heard that Mr. Schenck was appointed 'Minister to Brazile,' a country in South America. The terms 'minister,' and 'preacher of the gospel,' were inseparably associated in his mind; and he took it for granted that Mr. Schenck had turned preacher, and had been sent on a professional 'mission.'

"With this impression he went home. 'Wife,' he said 'what do you think I heard at Dalton to-day? That little white-headed lawyer you have heard me speak of so often, has been converted, and turned preacher to a heathen nation away down in South America! If the Devil ever met his match, I guess he has got him now: for if grace don't change him too much, he will give no rest to the reprobate for the sole of his foot until he leaves the country!'"

THE VALUE OF DEAD HORSES.—Some people will no doubt be astonished to learn that large fortunes have been made every year since the commencement of the war, out of the dead horses of the army of the Potomac. The popular idea is that when Rosinate yields up the ghost, she is buried in some field, or left to moulder into mother earth in the woods somewhere. Not so. She has indeed made her last charge and gnawed her last fence-rail, but there is from two to four dollars in the old animal yet. A contract for the purchase of the dead horses of the army of the Potomac for the ensuing year, was let a few weeks ago to the highest bidder at $1 76 per head, delivered at the factory of the contractor. Last year $60,000 were cleared on the contract, and this year it is thought $100,000 can be made on it. The animals die at the rate of 50 per day, at the lowest calculation.

At the contractor's establishment they are thoroughly dissected. First, the shoes are taken off, and are usually worth 50 cents per set. Then the hoofs are cut off, which bring about two dollars a set. Then comes the caudal appendage, worth half a dollar. Then the hide—I don't know what that sells for. Then the tallow, if it be possible to extract tallow from the army horses, which I think extremely doubtful unless they die immediately after entering the service. And last, but not least, the shin bones are valuable, being converted into a variety of articles that many believe to be composed of pure ivory, such as cane-heads, knife handles, &c.

☞ Two boatman were talking at Brighton, England, the other day, when one asked the other if the Prince of Wales ever went to church. 'Lord bless you,' said he, 'what should he go to church for? We, poor souls, are obliged to pray for ourselves; but there are enough to pray for him.'

☞ Some men are like gardens enclosed by rough stone walls—unsightly without, but beautiful within.

The Situation.

The crowd of telegrams have somewhat abated in the daily papers, during the past few days, in consequence of the cessation of hostilities, for a time, on the road to Richmond. After ten days of the most terrible fighting ever known in the annals of war, Gen. Grant has paused for a few days, partly on account of the almost impassible condition of the roads, in consequence of the late rains, and partly to allow his men a season of rest after their herculean, heroic and victorious labors — Ere he did so, however, he had succeeded in pushing Lee from all his strong positions and sending his army back on Richmond defeated, confused and dispirited. We have looked over the lists of killed and wounded, but they are so megre and impertect that we cannot make out the names of any from this section who have fallen.— Among the officers killed, we notice that of Col. Geo. Dare, of the fifth Reserves. Col. Dare was from Huntingdon county and was known to many of our citizens. No better officer led his men into that fight, no truer gentleman could be found, and no braver man or firmer patriot fell in that sanguinary strife.

Gen. Sheridan, in command of the cavalry forces, has been entirely successful in his raid upon Lee's communications with Richmond, having destroyed several miles of railroad, recaptured six hundred prisoners which were being sent to Richmond, and destroyed one million rations stored at Beaver Dam. We also stormed and carried the first line of entrenchments around Richmond, but finding the force within the second too strong to be overcome with cavalry, he withdrew and made his way to the Peninsula where he joined Gen. Butler's forces. During his raid he fell in with Stuart's rebel cavalry with whom he had a fight, whipped them and Killed Gen. Stewart, the leader. Of this latter fact there can be no mistake, as the Richmond papers give an account of his funerel.

Gen. Butler has Beauregard penned up at Petersburg, and seems determined to keep him there. His forces, under Smith and Gilmore, are operating against Fort Darling with every prospect of finally carry that strong hold and opening the way for our gunboats to Richmond. A number of causualties in the 76th regiment are reported, showing that in this, as in all other fights where it has been engaged, it has taken a leading part.

Gen. Sherman is still pushing Johnston back into Geogia. On the fifteenth he had a fight at Resaca in which he was successful. The details are not given, but Gen. Sherman says that our loss is in the neighbor hood of 3,000, killed wounded and missing. Everything was progressing finely. The railroad has beenrepaired to within seven miles of the army.

It is reported that Lee is receiving heavy reinforcements from North Carolina. This may be so, and again it may not be. Gen Grant is also being heavily reinforced. When next he moves it will be with an army as large, if not larger, than that with which he first attacked Lee. His reinforcements exceed his losses. He telegrapes the Secretary of War that he has not lost a single organization, not even a company, since the fight commenced. This evidences superior generalship.

The Union County Convention.

We publish in another part of our paper the proceedings of the Union County Convention, held in Hollidaysburg, on last Tuesday. The Congressional contest resulted in L. W. Hall carrying the county by a very large majority,—the delegates from nearly every township in the county having been instructed for him. The delegate elections of the preceeding Saturday were unusually well attended, and the choice of the County fairly expressed. The people have thus spoken on the course pursued by the Hollidaysburg "Register." Notwithstanding this, the Editor of this PARTY ORGAN, in this week's issue, again renews his attack on Mr. Hall, and again seeks to divide and distract the party with which he claims to belong. He, for week after week, called on the people to attend the delegate elections, and express their choice. He was gratified in his wish! For our answer to his last malicious and slanderous article, we respectfully refer him to the proceedings of the Convention, and the endorsement of Mr. Hall. A week ago the Editor of the "Register" favored the nomination of a gentleman in this county—now he is in favor of anybody out of it. And yet towards the gentleman who is declared the choice of this County, he does not "entertain a single unkind feeling." We dismiss the subject, and with it the Editor of the "Register," by again referring him to the proceedings of the Convention. By a proper study of the action of that body, he will lea n a lesson, and it is—that "honesty is the best policy," and in the long run, truth the easiest road to travel. The County Convention has answered his charges against Mr. Hall, by passing the following Resolution:

Resolved, That we repose implicit confidence in Hon. L. W. Hall, in his unflinching dovotion to the Union cause; in his integrity; and his known and tried industry, readiness and ability to serve successfully a constituency in any representative body; and for these reasons we designate him as our choice for the nomination as the Union candidate for Congress from this District, and empower him to select his own conferees to the Congressional Convention.

Latest News.

The latest from Washington is to the effect that information received at the War Department leave no doubt that the rebels are receiving large reinforcements from the South to Lee's army. Both armies are actively preparing for the next conflict.— The weather is good for military operations.

It is reported that an order will be issued to-night for the draft for 300,000 men. The time fixed for the draft is the 1st of July.

The rebel prisoners captured by Gen. Grant have been sent north by steamer.

VERY LATEST.

WASHINGTON, MAY 18.

Although this morning there was no official promulgation of the fact, it is confidentially asserted by knowing Congressional friends of the Administration that it has been determined on to call for 300,000 more troops.

☞The pugilistic editor of the 'Register' attacks Mr. Rose, of this place, in this week's issue of his paper. He charges him with untruth. Mr. Dean risks a great deal when he raises an issue of this kind with B. F. Rose. The one has been proven a libeller and a slanderer. The character of the other, for sterling integrity, a strict regard for the truth, and in all walks of life, as a christian and gentleman, is too well known to be injured by this malicious charge of the TRUTHFUL editor.

Pay as You Go.

The times are prosperous. Money is abundant, and labor is well requited in every channel of industry. Trade has an impetus hitherto unknow within the experience of the present active men; and fortune seems to smile upon every one whose hand is put forth to welcome her. Our farmers have had a succession of bountiful harvests, and their products have commanded more than remunerating prices.

The present is a good time to guard aganist future disaster. It is well for all to pause at times and take their latitude, for prosperity is as capricious as the morning mists, and may vanish when we least expect it. We do not predict early or certain revolution; but as surely as night succeeds day, revolution, more or less terrible in its power, must follow inflation: and if we rush on as if rich harvests were to be perpetual, and as if money were to be ever abundant, it needs no prophet to foretel that disaster will come with the first depression of the great business interests of the country.

Let the thoughtful man compare the present with the habits and prudence of our people five years ago. Then we shunned debt as the fruitful parent of ruin—now every species of debt is regarded with singular indifference. Counties, townships and boroughs, do not hesitate to contract debts of startling magnitude to pay bounties to volunteers. True, we are but doing our duty to our government in exhausting our resources to sustain its supreme and protecting power; but it should not for a moment be forgotten that now is the time to pay!

Every district in Franklin county has contracted a large debt to fill its quota of troops. We honor them for it; but the whole of these debts could be paid just now without being seriously felt by the people, while if allowed to remain unsettled under the mistaken notion that they can be better paid in light instalments, they may entail a bitter legacy upon us in after years. Suppose these debts should be to pay in the midst of revolutions such as 1857 and 1860 witnessed, or with a deranged currency such as 1838–40 produced, would they not bring terror to every door? bear in mind that several thousand millions of National debt have been imposed upon us by murderous treason, and it must be sustained and eventually paid. It will be a heavy tax upon our resourses and industry for generations to come; and it is unwise to add to the necessary burdens, the demands which the present times should provide for.

We would earnestly urge every district now loaded with bounty or debt, to pay it at once. It can be done without hardship upon any class of people at this time; and every dictate of prudence points to the wisdom of employing the superabundant resources of the country, to relieving existing embarrassments as far as possible. It is the safe rule always to pay when able to do so; we submit to the people whether they can ever hope to be in a better position to pay than just now? We hope, indeed, that the currant year will extinguish every such debt, and leave the people prepared for every sacrifice the preservation of our sacred Nationality may impose upon them, without being crippled by local obligations. Let every township, ward or borough adopt the motto—"pay as you go."—Chambersb'g Repository.

This article may not apply to any of the townships of this county, so far as township bounties are concerned, but we have a county bounty matter yet on hand which should be wiped out at once, and now is the time to do it. We believe it can be done more easily within the next six months than any time in the future. Too be sure, it is not heavy, but where's the use in carrying a light weight all the time, when by taking on a little heavier load for a short time we get clear of the weight altogether. The "pay as you go" motto is applicable to all business transactions, and we have no doubt all our subscribers could now pay us what they owe more easily than they can a year hence. Do not let your liabilities increase when you have the means to get rid of them entirely.

Rebel Treatment of Our Prisoners

WASHINGTON, May 9.

The Committee on the conduct of the War, who have been to Annapolis, to investigate the condition of returned Union prisoners, have made a report. From it we learn that it appears the rebels have determined to subject our soldiers and officers who fall in their hands, to physical and mental suffering impossible to describe, many of them presenting now the appearance of living skeletons, literally little more than skin and bone—some frozen by lying without tent or covering, on the bare ground, at Belle Isle. The general practice is shown to be the robbery of prisoners as soon as taken, of all money, valuables and good clothing. The food allowed was totally insufficient to preserve the health of a child. It consisted of two pieces of bread made of corn and cornmeal badly cooked, with about two ounces of meat each to eat, and occasionally a few black, wormeaten beans. They were obliged to sell the clothing they received from home to buy food to sustain life.

Those in hospitals were little better fed, and their wounds remained for days undressed. One witness, when asked if he was hungry, replied "Hungry? I could eat anything in the world that came before us." They were submitted to unmercitul and murderous treatment from those in charge of them. They were shot and killed for violating laws of which they had no knowledge.— When they arrived at Annapolis their clothing was so filled with vermin that they had to be destroyed, and repeated washings failed to relieve their heads and bodies of their presence. They are dying rapidly, and the physicians in charge entertain no doubt that their emaciation and death are clearly caused by the brutul treatment received while prisoners of war. The testimony shows that the treatment received at Columbia and Dalton was far worse.

The committee cannot resist the conclusion that these inhuman practices are the result of a determination on the part of the rebel authorities to reduce our soldiers by privations and exposure to such a condition that they never will again be able to render effective service in the field.— The result is like the late masacre of Fort Pillow—a permediated policy. They deem it evident that the rebel newspaper accounts claiming for prisoners the same treatment as their own soldiers, are glaring and unblushing falsehoods.

No one can for a moment be deceived by such statements, who will reflect that our soldiers, when taken prisoners, were stout, healthy men in the prime and vigor of life, yet they have died by hundreds under the treatment they have received.

General Meade's Congratulatory Address.

Dispatches dated Headquarters, Army of the Potomac, May 13th, have been received by the Associated Press. Among them we find the following congratulatory address of Gen. Meade:

Soldiers:—The moment has arrived when your Commanding General feels authorized to address you in terms of congratulation For eight days and nights, almost without intermission, in rain and sunshine, you have been gallantly fighting a desperate foe in positions naturally strong, and rendered doubly so by entrenchments. You have compelled him to abandon his fortifications on the Rapidan and retire. He has attempted to stop your onward progress, and now he has abandoned his last entrenched position, so tenaciously held, suffering a loss in all of 18 guns, 22 colors, and 8,000 prisoners, including two General officers. Your heroic deeds and endurance of fatigue and privation will ever be remembered. Let us return thanks to God for the mercy thus shown, and ask earnestly for its continuance.

Soldiers, your work is not over; the enemy must be pursued, and, if possible, overcome. The courage and fortitude you have displayed renders your Commanding General confident your efforts will result in success. While we mourn the loss of many gallant comrades, let us remember that the enemy must have suffered equal if not greater losses. We shall soon receive reinforcements, which he cannot expect. Let us determine, then, to continue the work so well begun, and under God's blessing, in a short time the object of our labors will be accomplished.

G. E. MEADE,
Major General Commanding.

LIABILITY OF TELEGRAPH COMPANIES.—A verdict was rendered in the New York Court of Common Please, on Saturday, which establishes, so far as the Court is concerned, a principle of much importance in regard to the liability of telegraph companies for the accuracy of their dispatches. It seems that a firm telegraphed to their agents in New York to sell five hundred shares of Southern Machigan stock at the morning board, and buy five hundred Hudson in the afternoon. The word "Hudson" was omitted in the dispatch, and five hundred Southern Machigan were bought. The result was a heavy loss to the parties who gave the order, and this loss was directly due to the mistake in the transmission of the dispatch. The result was a verdict in favor of the claimants, thus establishing the principle that telegraph companies are responsible, like other common carriers, for the accuracy with which they transmit the messages intrusted to them.

BISHOP SIMPSON IN WASHINGTON.—This distinguished prelate, the loyal Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church, at the request of the Indiana delegation, preached in the House of Representatives, on Sabbath last, to an immense throng—every part of the vast hall being crowded, and hundreds failing to obtain admission. The President, Mrs. Lincoln, Secretary Chase, and a large num ber of Senators and Representatives heard the great effort. He is represented to have spoken for more than an hour, with an eloquence, logic and force, and with a fervid patriotism that proved how well he deserved his reputation as one of the most eminent pulpit orators, and one of the most devoted friends of the Republic, of these warlike times.

CONFERENCE AND THE PRESIDENT.—In the Methodist Conference, at Philadelphia, the Committee on the State of the Country submitted the following report:

The Committee upon the State of the Country have considered the following subject, submitted to them by the General Conference, viz:

WHEREAS, It is a well known fact that the Methodist Episcopal Church was the first to tender its obligations to the Government, under the Constitution, in the days of Washington; and whereas, the fair record of the Church has never been tarnished by disloyalty; and whereas, our ministers and people are truly and deeply in sympathy with the Government, in its effort to put down the Rebellion, and set the captive free; therefore,

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed, whose duty it shall be to proceed to Washington, and to present to the President of the United States the assurance of our Church, in a suitable address, that we are with him in heart and in hand in the present struggle for human rights and free institutions.

☞ The "Fenian Brotherhood" has an offset, which, thus far, is supposud to be confined to England, in what is styled the "Southern Independence Association," over which Lord Shamcliff, a peer of the realm, presides. Another peer, the Marquis of Bath, leads the list of vice presidents, followed by a long list of associates, titled and otherwise, including about twenty members of the House of Commons. Not a few clergymen of the Church of England are included in the list. The inevitable Roebuck and Lindsay are there, and so is professor Aytoun, of Edinburgh, and of Blackwood's Magazine. This organization, unlike the Fenians, appeals directly and openly for support, in behalf of "Southern Independence." and publishes its proceedings in the papers.

The Manufacturers of Farm Impliments and Machinery.

The Committee charged with the Department of Agricultural Machinery in the Great Sanitary Fair, to open on the 5th of June, in the city of Philadelphia, begs leave earnestly to invite the active co-operation of all who may be able to contribute, wherever resident, but especially those located in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and Delaware. It is the ambition of the Committe to make this Department worthily represent, in its own sphere, the controlling industrial interest of the country. The simpiest article will be equally acceptable with the most elaborate. The implement lowest in money value, with the most costly. It is the people's Fair, expressive of sympathy and affection for the suffering soldiers of the Union, and all cordially invited to co-operate in the good work.— Let each one contribute to the cause in proportion to his means. A Grubbing-hoe, or Hay-rake, the handy workmanship of him who toils for daily bread, will be as greatfully received, highly estimated, and conspiciously displayed, as the most costly machine, the triumphant result of combined capital and skill. Come, then, one and all, with much, with little, and swell the testimony of the people's gratitude. If there be any who would willingly contribute a costly machine, but who cannot afford so to do, let them ask others to join in the gift. There is no better way to aid in furtherance of the benevolent object to the Fair.

It is suggested that greater money results may be attained if the machines be furnished in the ordinary way only—thus no special effort will be needed in preparation, and larger gifts may be afforded. Very respectfully,

DAVID LANDRETH, Chairman.

JOHN H. GRAHAM, Secretary.

In forwarding contributions, please observe the following directions:

1st. Mark each box, package, or bundle, clearly thus:

To DAVID LANDRETH,
CENTRAL FAIR WAREHOUSE,

2. On one corner mark your name and county.
2d. Send by Express or Railroad Company, or private hand, but do not pre-pay charges.
5th. Mail to the Chairman the bill of lading or receipt from the Express or Railroad Company, and also a list of articles, together with the donor's name.
5th. Let all contributions be forwarded so as to be delivered at the Warehouse, in Philadelphia, before the close of May—the earlier the better.
6th. Let each article be labelled or marked, with its reasonable value.
6th. Let every box, parcel, or package, be well and securely put up, and the contents carefully packed. It will only be necessary to guard heavy or bulky machines against breaking or abrasion.

On receipt of each box, parcel, or package, a proper acknowledgment will be sent, duly attested.

The Strength of the Contending Armies.

The Boston Traveller, in discussing "the situation," mingles speculation with fact as follows. We think some of its figures are erroneous:

The weakness in numbers which the rebels manifest elsewhere, leads to the belief that Lee's army has been stronger than was supposed at Washington. When General Grant moved across the Rapidan, it was ascertained from what was deemed good authority, that on this side of the Mississippi the rebels had about 250,000 men under arms. It was not supposed that even with Longstreet's reinforcements, Lee had more than 85,000 men. If he had not more than this number, fully one-half of them must have been used up before he retreated on Thursday night from the line of the Po river at Spottysvania.

It is quite probable from the desperate resistance which Lee made, and the good order in which he retreated on Thursday night, after a hard day's fight and the wreck of Hill's corps on the morning of that day, that he must have been more largely reinforced than was supposed, and that he had 100,000 men. If the troops from Carolinas had reached him, which seems possible from the fact that Beauregard is demonstrating so feebly in Butler's department, he may have had 110,000 men, but if every available man within call had joined him, it is not supposed that he could have had more than 120,000.

As the plan and condition of the campaign have now passed to such a stage that new combinations and new organizations will be made, it is not improper to say that Grant's army was divided into four corps, which, as they had been newly organized, were undoubtedly full, and in round numbers may be set down at 40,000 men each, or 160,000 in all. Assuming, however, that they were not full, and it is almost impossible to keep even a regiment full for even forty-eight hours after it is organized, we may call the corps 35,000 each and reduce the total from 160,000 to 140,000.

Of the whole number of Grant's army, probably 40,000 have been, as the military men say, put hors du combat, or out of the fight. He has, however, been reinforced, since the battle of Thursday, by 12,000 Western veterans sent from Washington on the morning of Wednesday, under Crittendon, accompanied by five other capable generals—Tyler, Lockwood, Roberts, Grose and De Trobraid. As there was a good supply of generals, the six who go out with these reinforcements will be sufficient to fill the places of the twelve who have been killed, wounded and taken prisoners, though the loss of so many brave and veteran generals as have fallen, is a very serious and melancholy event.

THE LADY'S FRIEND FOR JUNE.—The June number of this handsome monthly opens with a fine steel engraving of "The Young Brood." This is followed by a handsome colored Fashion Plate, double the size of those usually given by two-dollar magazines. Then come a number of well-executed wood engravings of the fashions, needle-work, &c., such as ladies alone know how to properly value. A number of engravings illustrating "Archery for Ladies" is an interesting feature of this number.

Among the literary articles we note the "Marriage of Convenience," "The Heiress of Nettlethrope" (illustrated), "Mabel's Mission," "Shadow and Sunshine," "Margaret's Cross," "Richard Garham's Love," "The Transformed Village" (illustrated), &c. &c. Altogether this is a very interesting number. Price $2,00 a year, (back numbers furnished); 20 cents a single number.

THE Danish engineers have discovered an ingenious contrivance for keeping their opponents exposed to a heavy fire, by a sort of invisable fence, made of strong wire, supported at stated distance by timber posts inserted in the ground. It must take, at all events, some procious minutes to overcome this obstacle, during which the attacking troops would be open to a destructive fire without any shelter. The intrenchments at Dupple are surrounded by these formidable barriers.

☞ A new plan of ascertaining the strength of convalescent soldiers in the hospitals, is to establish ten-pin alleys for their amusement, and then send to their regiments all those who can make strings of a hundred and fifty or upwards.

☞COMMITTEE FOR A DAY'S LABOR.

GREAT CENTRAL SANITARY FAIR.

Committee on "Labor, Incomes and Revenues."

Office No. 118 S. Seventh street.

JOHN W. CLAGHORN, Treasurer.

This Committee has a special work, to wit: to obtain a day's "labor," a day's "income" and a day's "revenue." from every citizen of the States of Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware, for the benefit of our sick and wounded soldiers.

The Committee are fully organised at the above address, and calls for the co operation of all clases in the community

We want to show what the industrial classes can do for their soldiers.

What the people can do in their separate trade
What Pennsylvania can do!
What New Jersey can do!
What Delaware can do!
What each county can do!
What each city and town can do!
What each profession can do!
What each trade can do!
What each occupation can do
What each manufactory can do!
What each bank, insurance company and railroad can do!
What each mine can do!
What each workshop can do!
What each family can do!
What each man can do!
What each woman can do!
What each boy and girl can do!

We want to show to the world what American freemen are ready to do for their soldiers!

This is a great work and the time is short.
The way to do so is to ORGANIZE!
Organize in your workshops—in your families.
Let the men organize.
Let the women organize.
Let the trades organize.
Organize everywhere.

Let the workmen give with their employees, and employers with their workmen.

It is easily done. If the workmen will authorize their employers to deduct one day from their week's or month's earnings, and the employers will add to it a day of their profits, the whole sum will be acknowledged together to the credit of the establishment. We say to all, go to work at once with us in this great work. Hurry forward your contributions. Every acknowledgment will stimulate others to follow your example.

Circulars with full instructions will be sent upon application, by mail or otherwise, to the undersigned. To work! to work!

HOSTETTER'S

CELEBRATED

STOMACH BITTERS.

A pure and powerful Tonic, corrective and alterative, of wonderful efficacy in disease of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.

Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Cramps and Spasms, and all Complaints of either Sex, arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or produced by special causes.

NOTHING that is not wholesome, genial and restorative in its nature enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant: but it is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

It is well to be forearmed against disease, and, so far as the human system can be protected by human means against maladies engendered by an unwholesome atmosphere, impure water and other external causes, HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS may be relied on as a safeguard.

In districts infected with Fever and Ague, it has been ound infallible as a preventive and irresistible as a remedy, and thousands who resort to it under apprehension of an attack, escape the scourge; and thousands who neglect to avail themselves of its protective qualities in advance, are cured by a very brief course of this marvelous medicine. Fever and Ague patients, after being plied with quinine for months in vain, until fairly saturated with that dangerous alkaloid, are not unfrequently restored to health within a few days by the use of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated and the appetite restored by this agreeable Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of DYSPEPSIA and in less confirmed forms of INDIGESTION. Acting as a gentle and painless apperient as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the CONSTIPATION superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is most conclusive, and from both sexes.

The agony of BILLIOUS COLIC is immediately a suaged by a single dose of the stimulant, and by occasionally resorting to it, the return of the complaint may be prevented

As a General Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay and Debility and Decrepitude arising from OLD AGE, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish it.

Last, but not least, it is The only Safe Stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

No family medicine has been so universally, and, it may be truly added, deservedly popular with the intelligent portion of the community, as HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.

Heavy Rains—Rail-Road Accident.—On Sunday last we were visited by the heaviest rain storm of the season, accompanied with sharp lightning and thunder. It came down in perfect torrents, overflowing the gutters, and filling cellars in all parts of the town. All the streams in this vicinity were much swollen, and considerable damage done to Rail-Road bridges. A bridge on the branch road, below Elrado was considerably injured, but not sufficient to stop the passage of trains. At Tipton Station the abutment of the Rail-Road bridge, across the Little Juniata, was swept away, and a freight train Eastward, on Monday morning, ran over it ere the train could be stopped. The engine kept the rail down into the river and up again to the track on the opposite side, but the tender was thrown from the track, and it, with some fourteen freight cars, some of which were loaded with coal oil, were piled up in the river. By some means fire was communicated to the broken cars, and soon the whole was a sheet of flame, the oil causing the flames to spread more rapidly. When the watchman waved the danger signal, as the train was approaching the break, Samuel Miller, fireman on the engine, left the tank and attempted to run back over the train. He was last seen jumping from the first to the second car, just as they were going over the abutment. Since that time no trace of him can be found, and it is supposed that he was consumed with the burning cars. His cap was found in the stream, some distance below the bridge. He was a single man, and resided at Fostoria.

P. S. Since the above was written Miller's body has been found. It was in the water below the bridge.

☞ Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, the sale of condemned Government horses, at this place, on Thursday and Friday last, was well attended by fanciers of horse-flesh, and the animals were bid off rapidly at prices ranging from $1 up to $102. Quite a number of them were good nags, and the purchasers may realize handsomely out of their bargains. A number, however, were so much delapidated, that when once down it required the assistance of several fence rails to put them on their pins again. One old stager, purchased by an Irishman, after being tied to a stake, took a notion to back a little, in consequence of which the rope around his neck tightened sufficiently to stop his wind, whereupon he fell, and in falling broke his back. When the Hibernian purchased him he had not the "green backs" to pay for him, and started off to get his money exchanged. While away the mishap occurred. He afterwards purchased another nag, and on coming forward to settle, found himself charged with the broken backed steed. Notwithstanding the Government officials endeavored to impress the fact upon him that he had purchased the horse, the Irishman "couldn't see it," inasmuch as they had refused to take his money when he first offered it. If one-half of these horses live it will be moer than we expect.

The Private Soldier.—Somebody says, and we endorse the sentiment, that if there is a being in the world who is deserving of private affection and public gratitude, it is the soldier who marches as a private in the ranks of the army, to fight for his country, offers his blood and life as a sacrifice for the maintenance of the Union and the Constitution. And yet how seldom it is that they get the honor and reward their services entitle them to. It is the private who carries the gun; it is the private who marches on foot through mud, frost and snow; it is the private who erects bridges over swift streams, and rears the lofty fortifications; and it is the private who, with the bayonet set, charges on the deadly rifle-pits and against the squared columns of the enemy; and yet how seldom is it that he receives the honors and rewards of his noble conduct.

Have You Books to Bind?—If so, bring them along at once. Of course you have a volume or two of some magazine, or valuable newspaper, which you intend to have bound and preserve, but ten chances to one you will neglect the matter until some of the numbers are lost, strayed, or stolen, and then your volume will be destroyed. Look around now and see whether you can find all the numbers, and if succeesful, bring them right along to the "Tribune Bindery" and have it bound up in good style. Then, instead of being a trouble to your better half, in the way of taking care of them, they will be an ornament to your library and an evidence of your care and taste. Don't let valuable books be destroyed for want of binding. If you have worn out the first binding bring them along and have it renewed.

Another Warning.—On Friday last, a little boy, ten years of age, named Miller Theodore Dougherty, living at Mapleton, Huntingdon county, fell from a freight train and had both his arms cut off. He was in the habit of jumping on and off freight trains passing that station, just as we observe many boys doing in this place; but the last and fatal time came. He was picked up and taken home, where he lingered in agony until the following evening, when death ended his sufferings. Will the boys of this place heed the warning and no longer imperil their lives or limbs in this manner. Parents, do keep your children away from the trains. Unless you exercise your authority in this respect you need not be surprised should they be brought home to you in the condition that Miller Dougherty was taken to his mother.

Shad-ow! Shad!—We are in luck this week. The heavy proprietor of the "Altoona Market Car," J. Holtzman, honored the Junior, a day or two since, with one of the finest shad of the season, such as Jake always brings up. Good things generally may always be had on the arrival of the Altoona Market Car. Scarcely had the above present been sent to the culinary department, ere Jake Wilson despatched a small boy with two fine specimens of Susquehanna's famous finny fish, with instructions that he convey them to the printers. Thank you, Sir. A repetition of the offence will meet with no resentment. Jake Wilson receives his shad by express, fine and fresh, together with other kinds of fish and all the vegetables in season.

Gigantic.—Goliah of Gath was eleven feet four inches in heigth. His brazen helmet weighed 15 lbs. His target or collar affixed between his shoulders to protect his neck, about 30 lbs; his spear was 26 feet long and weighed 58 lbs; its head weighing 38; his sword 4, his greaves on his legs 30; and his coat of mail 186, making in all 273 lbs! When he wanted a new suit he always went to the blacksmith's and it was sent home to him on a dray. If he had lived in our time and town, and bought his groceries and provisions at Fritchey's cheap cash store, they would have been sent home to him in that beautiful new wagon which John keeps for the accommodation of his numerous customers.

The New Ordinance:—The Town Council have passed, printed and posted the following Ordinance, which, it enforced, will surely cause our town to present a much better appearance than it does at this time. We hope our city "Fathers" will not consider their work done when they see the Ordinance posted, but will inspect the alleys and by places and see that it is complied with.—We have had so many Ordinances posted, the requirements of which were never exacted, that our people now pay very little respect to them, and it is not likely they will respect this one unless they are closely watched. This is the Ordinance.

Be it Ordained by the Burgess and Town Council of the Borough of Altoona, that if any person shall have, keep or maintain a pig sty, stable or pen, or any other building or place within said Borough, which shall emit an offensive smell, or be otherwise injurious to the inhabitants of said Borough or any of them, so as to be a nuisance, or keep or have any offensive matter on or about the premises owned or occupied by such person, so as to be a nuisance, such person shall be notified by the Buugess and Town Council, or by some person authorized by them, to remove or abate said nuisance, within five days, and if said requisition shall not be complied with, the Burgess and Town Council, or some person by them authorized, shall, after the expiration of five days from the time when such notice shall have been given, remove or abate the same, or cause the same to be removed or abated, and collect the cost thereof with twenty per centum advance thereon, from the person so offending, and such person, also, being thereof duly convicted, and shall forfeit and pay a fine not exceeding ten dollars for every such offence, and that the first section of Ordinance No. 6, is hereby repealed.

Blair County and the Draft.—We are indebted to Jas. M. Kinkead, Esq., for the following statement showing how this county stands with regard to the coming draft—the preliminaries for which are all arranged, and which will no doubt take place in a very short time. Our readers can rely on this table as being entirely correct, and we would advise sub-districts not yet filled to make a vigorous effort to complete their quotas before the wheel at the Town Hall commences to revolve.—Credits will be given up to the day of the draft.—Standard.

Beware of Pork.—Of this meat Dr. Trail writes rather appallingly: "In condemning it we know we assail the prejudice of many, and offend the ignorance of others. But the best teachers on the subject of health utterly condemn its use. It is gross and corrupting. There are marks of disease in all swine, and in those most highly fattened disease is most conspicuous. We have been surprized and enlightened by the fact that many farmers who annually take to market large quantities of pork, use but little in their families, convinced by experience that it is not wholesome for them. Doubtless there is too much flesh food used by our people; but the ox and the sheep are not naturally unclean creatures, as the hog is. The hog, like the buzzard, is a natural scavenger. Let him fill his office, and in the end, be converted into oil, light, and lubrication, and its grosser material into soap-grease."

Fatal Accident.—On this (Thursday) morning, as an old man, named Rodgers, and his son, hailing from Philadelphia, were passing through the Railroad cut below Blair Furnace, three miles below this place, they met a Westward bound train and stepped over to the Eastward track out of the way. It appears that a train was also approaching from the West, which they did not perceive, and both were struck by the engine and thrown from the track. The old man was instantly killed and the boy considerably cut about the frace but not dangerously injured. They were put upon a train and brought up to this place, and the boy is now at the Union Hotel. They were in very destitute circumstances, begging their bread as they travelled.

Still Another Railroad Accident.—An old woman named Mary Mountain, residing somewhere near Kittaning point, was struck by one of the pushers on the monutain division, on Wednesday morning last, and knocked from the track and considerably bruised and cut about the body. Her injuries are said to be only flesh wounds, but her escape from serious hurt, if not instant death, was most miraculous. She was walking on the track at the time, and did not notice the approach of the engine in time to avoid it, the breaking of the whistle cord preventing the engineer from giving the proper signal.

☞ The shows have come and gone, and no one feels any the better of their visit. They were but a reproduction of the performances of such institutions for half a century past, if, in fact, they were as creditable as those of Welch and Stickney in their palmy days. They no longer create the excitement, or present the grand "entree" which accompanied the advent of the old establishments named. The days of circuses are well-nigh played out, and the country would not suffer by their early demise.

Elder Bush.—One of our exchange newspapers says insects never touch the elder bush. The leaves of the elder, scattered over cucumbers, cabbages, squashes, etc., etc., subject to the ravages of insects, effectually shield them. The plum and other fruits may be saved by placing on the branches and through them, bunches of elder leaves. It is said that ants will not come about where elder leaves are scattered. This is easily tried, and if successful, of great importance.

Change of Schedule.—By reference to the Schedule published in another column, it will be seen that a few slight changes have been made in the arrival and departure of trains, in most instances the time being earlier. The time of arrival and closing of the mails has also been changed.

Confirmation.—Right Rev. M. Domenec, Bishop of the Diocese, will administer the sacrament of confirmation at St. John's (Catholic) church, in this place, on Thursday morning next. In the evening a lecture will be delivered by the Bishop, and as he is one of the best logicians and most eloquent speakers connected with the church, we have no doubt his lecture will attract quite a large audience. Admission free.

—Tuesday, 31st inst., has been fixed upon as the day for holding the May party under the auspices of St. John's congregation. Our Catholic friends have never yet failed in getting up the most enjoyable festivals of this kind, and the coming one we are sure will be no exception to the rule. All who appreciate good cheer and innocent recreation, will not fail to be in attendance.

A Small Joke.—Two wagons loaded with paper collars are said to have been captured by the rebels at Mansfield, a short time since, and probably having no nether garments to which collars are attachable, Gen. Dick Taylor returned them to General Banks, accompanied by the following facetious letter: "I have boiled, baked and stewed these things, and can do nothing with them. We cannot eat them. They are a luxury for which I have no use, and I would like, therefore, to exchange them for a like quantity of hard tack." It is not known whether Gen. Banks sent the "hard tack" in any other shape than leaden balls, but it is known that Harry M'Pike still has an ample supply of seasonable dress goods, dry goods, notions, carpets, oil cloths, groceries, etc., and that he does sell them a shade lower than "any other man" in this "neck of timber." No charge for showing goods.

☞ The strike among the employees at the various railroad depots in Cincinnati is about at an end, new men having been employed.

The Draft.—It is estimated that the draft which is to take place in several States that have not filled their quotas, will add one hundred thousand men to the army.

☞ Among the Romans the gift of a ring was a badge of liberation from slavery. Married people may best explain whether it is so among the moderns.

☞ The publisher of the Erie City Dispatch is about to try the experiment of publishing a daily paper in that place. If the Dispatch man can't make it go, there will be no use in any one else trying it.

☞ A Pike's Peaker, writing to a Minnesota journal, says the miners are very much discouraged in that region; they have to dig through a solid vein of silver four feet thick before they reach the gold.

Hoyt's Hiawatha Hair Restorative.

The standard staple preperation for the hair, warranted in all cases to restore faded and gray hair, and whiskers to their original color. It does not claim to make the hair grow in where it has once fallen out; nothing will do that whatever may be advertised to the contrary, but it will prevent it from falling out, make it soft and silky, cleanse it and the scalp from impurities and humors, and entirely overcome bad effects of previous use of preperations containing sulpher, sugar of lead, &c. It requires no soaping washing, and hours for its application, nor will it stain the skin, but is as easily applied and wiped from the skin as any hair dressing. It restores the natural shading of one hair with another, which gives it a lively apperance instead of the dull uniform black of dyes.

HOYT'S IMPERIAL COLORING CREAM.

Superior to any Hair Dressing in use. Oils and Colors the Hair at the same time. Changes light and red hair to a beautiful brown or black. Sold everywhere.

U. S. 10-40 Bonds.

These Bonds are issued under Act of Congress of March 8 1864, which provides that all Bonds issued under this Act shall be EXEMPT FROM TAXATION by or under any state or municipal authority. Subscription to these Bonds are received in United States notes or notes of National Banks. They are TO BE REDEEMED IN COIN, at the pleasure of the Government, at any period not less than ten nor more than forty years from their date, and until their redemption FIVE PER CENT. INTEREST WILL BE PAID IN COIN, on Bonds of not over one hundred dollars annually and on all other Bonds semi-annually. The interest is payable on the first days of March and September in each year.

Subscribers will receive either Registered or Coupon Bonds, as they may prefer. Registered Bonds are recorded on the books of the U. S. Treasurer, and can be transferred only on the owner's order. Coupon Bonds are payable to bearer, and are more convenient for commercial uses.

Subscribers to this loan will have the option of having their Bonds draw interest from March 1st, by paying the accrued interest in coin—(or in United States notes, or the notes of National Banks, adding fifty per cent. for premium,) or receive them drawing interest from the date of subscription and deposit. As these Bonds are their value is increased from one to three per cent. per annum, according to the rate of tax levies in various parts of the country.

At the present rate of premium on gold they pay

OVER EIGHT PER CENT INTEREST

in currency, and are of equal convenience as a permanent or temporary investment.

It is believed that no securities offer so great inducements to lenders as the various descriptions of U. S. Bonds. In all other forms of indebtedness, the faith or ability of private parties or stock companies or separate communities only is pledged for payment, while for the debts of the United States the whole property of the country is holden to secure the payment of both principal and interest in coin.

These Bonds may be subscribed for in sums from $50 up to any magnitude, on the same terms, and are thus made equally available to the smallest lender or the largest capitalist. They can be converted into money at any moment, and the holder will have the benefit of the interest.

It may b useful to state in this connection that the total Funded Debt of the United States, on which interest is payable in gold, on the 3d day of March, 1864, was $768,965,000. The interest on this debt for the coming fiscal year will be $45,937,126, while the customs revenue in gold for the current fiscal year, ending June 30th, 1864, has been so far at the rate of over $100,000,000 per annum.

It will be seen that even the present gold revenues of the Government are largely in excess of the wants of the Treasurer for the payment of gold interest, while the recent increase of the tariff will doubtless raise the annual receipts from customs on the same amount of importations, to $150,000,000 per annum.

Instructions to the National Banks acting as loan agents were not issued from the United States Treasury until March 26, but in the first three weeks of April the subscriptions averaged more than TEN MILLIONS A WEEK

SCROFULA AND RHEUMATISM.

CASE OF DANIEL A. BOYD.

PITTSBURGH, December 31, 1861.

DR. G. H. KEYSER: I take pleasure in making this voluntary statement in favor of a medicine made by you, called "Lindsey's Blood Searcher." I have suffered for five years from Scrofula, which broke out in my head and forehead, so as to disfigure me very much, and took off the hair when the disease made its appearance; it also broke out on my arm above and below the elbow, and eat into the skin and flesh so as to expose a fearful looking sore. The disease on my head went so far that several small pieces of bone came out. I was very weak and low spirited, and had given up all hopes of ever getting well, as I had tried several skillful physicians, and they did me no good. In September last, 1861 I was induced to try "Lindsey's Improved Blood Searcher." I must confess I had no faith in patent medicines, but after I had used three bottles of Blood Searcher, the ulcers on my head and arm began to heal. I have now taken eight or ten bottles, and my head and arm are entirely well, except the scars remaining from the sores. I will also state that I had the Rheumatism very bad in my arms and legs. The Blood Searcher also cured the Rheumatism. I am now a well man, over forty years ofage, and I feel as supple and young as I did when I was twenty, and increased in weight twenty pounds. I would also state that when I stooped to lift anything heavy the blood ran out of the sore.

Dr. Keyser had a photograph taken of me by Mr. Cargo, the artist, after I began to get well. It does not show my appearance as bad as it was before I commenced taking the medicine. You can see the photographs, one of which is now in my possession, also at Dr. Keyser's 140 Wood street. I would also state that I took the Blood Searcher which was made before Dr. Keyser commenced making it. Although it helped me some, I did not recover until I got the kind made by Dr. Keyser himself. One bottle of this did me more good than two of the old. I believe it is a great deal stronger and better. I have recommended the Blood Searcher to a great many of my friends for various diseases, and I believe it has helped the whole of them.

DANIEL A. BOYD.

ADDITIONAL CERTIFICATE OF DANIEL A. BOYD

DR. KEYSER: It is twenty months since I gave you my certificate in respect to the cure of my head and arm by the Blood Searcher, prepared by you. I was told by several people who have no faith in patent medicines that my head would get sore again in less than six months, and there is no appearance of its getting sore again. It is as well now as the day I gave you my certificate. If you like to publish this you may do so.

ANOTHER GREAT CURE BY THE BLOOD SEARCHER.

DR. GEORGE H. KEYSER.—Dear Sir: Actuated by the sincerest feelings of gratitude, I take pleasure in adding to the already many testimonials in favor of the IMPROVED BLOOD SEARCHER, prepared by you, hoping that others afflicted as my son was, may thereby become induced to use the BLOOD SEACHER, and be rescued from a miserable condition. My little boy of six years of age became afflicted with sore eyes. I took him to five of the most eminent Doctors of Pittsburg; they pronounced it Scrofula, but they could not help him. I was induced to try the BLOOD SEARCHER. I got two bottles; the first bottle I did not notice any benefit from, the second is not quite finished, and his eyes seem to be quite well, although I intend to use another bottle or two to make sure of it.

Yours truly, SARAH CLARK, O'Hara street.

SORE EYES.

DR. GEO. H. KEYSER: My sister had putrid sore eyes, which affected her sight to almost total blindness. I was recommended to try your BLOOD SEARCHER. I bought one bottle, which she took, and she is entirely well. I would recommend it to others similarly afflicted, as I think there is not a better medicine to be found. Wishing you a hearty success, I remain,

Yours truly, MARY T. COUP.

By her brother, HENRY D. COUP.

PALSY CURED.

DR. GEO. H. KEYSER: I have been afflicted with paralysis of the limbs for four months, and after doctoring a long time to no purpose, Mr. Walker, of this place, got me to get one bottle of your BLOOD SEARCHER. I did so, and am now entirely well for which I am very thankful to you. HARRISON BRYNER, Connellsville, Pa.

PAIN IN THE SIDE.

I have been afflicted with a pain in the side for a long time, and one bottle of Improved Blood Searcher cured me sound and well. I had tried everything that I could think of, and had consulted the best doctors in the county and received no benefit until I used one bottle of the Blood Searcher, which cured me sound and well.

JAMES SLIUSMAN,
New Haven, Fayette county.

SKIN DISEASE "BREAKING OUT."

DR. GEORGE H. KEYSER: I have had a breaking out on the skin for six months, and after using everything I could hear of, Mr. Walker advised me to use one bottle of your Blood Searcher. I did so, and find great relief, so much so, that I think I am entirely well, and recommend it to others for the same disease. P. I. V. BRADY, Connellsville, March 2d, 1863.

SCROFULA.

DR. GEORGE H. KEYSER: My little girl was taken with Scrofula, the same way that her brother was taken, and I went to Mr. Walker and got two bottles of Blood Searcher, and she is now well. Her brother sent his certificate last fall, and I want you to have her's.

BELINDA SHAW.

Connellsville, March, 1863.

PILES OF

TWENTY YEARS STANDING

CURED.

Below will be found a certificate from one of the most respectable citizens of Wilkins township in regard to Dr. Keyser's Lindsey's Blood Searcher. The Doctor's certificates are within reach, and no one need be deceived in regard to his preparations.

DR. GEO. H. KEYSER:—I became afflicted with the Piles about twenty years ago, and every year they were growing worse, so as to trouble me very much, so much so at times as to unfit me for work. Sometimes I was so bad that I could not do anything on account of them, they came out on me as large as a hickory nut. I had tried a great deal of medicine for them. I used to buy and take whatever I could hear of or read of in circulars and pamphlets that fell in my way, but I could not get cured, sometimes they would do me some good for a little while, but afterwards they would return again as bad as ever. I also applied to two Doctors who visited me at my house and gave me some medicine but it would not do, I could not get well.—Over a year ago I got an advertisement of your Lindsey's Blood Searcher, made by yourself—when you sold it to me you told me one bottle would not cure me, and that my whole system would have to be renewed by the medicine before I got well. I bought one bottle and took it home with me and used it according to your directions. I then called to see you again, when you said I could not expect much benefit from one bottle. I bought it on, one bottle at a time, until I had used five bottles. After this quantity had been used, I was entirely well of the Piles, which had tortured me for twenty years. In other respects my health is improved, and I am as well as could be expected for one of my age, being sixty years past. I have been well now for six months, and there is no appearance of a return of the disease. I can do any kind of farming work now without the Piles coming down and hurting me. I can pitch hay, chop wood, lift, or do any kind of work which before used to hurt me. When I found out your Blood-Searcher I kept on taking it until I got entirely well. I consider it my duty to make my case known to the country for the benefit of others who may be suffering as I was, and do not know the value of your medicine.—You may publish this if you like—I live in Wilkins Township, and will be pleased to satisfy any one of the truth of this certificate if they wish to call on me.

ELLIOTT DAVIS.

December 24th, 1863.

Look out for the name of DR. GEORGE H. KEYSER on the cover of the bottle and pasted over the cork; also for his stamp on the United States stamp on the top of the bottle to prevent being imposed upon by a spurious article which is in the market.

DR. WISHART'S

PINE TREE

TAR CORDIAL

IS THE VITAL PRINCIPLE OF THE PINE TREE.

Obtained by a peculiar process in the distillation of the tar, by which its highest medical properties are retained.

Have you a Cough? Have you a Sore Throat? Have you any of the promonitory symptoms of that most fatal disease, Consumption?

Those who should be warned by these symptoms generally think lightly of them until it is too late. From this fact, perhaps more than any other, arises the sad prevalence and fatality of disease which sweeps to the grave at least "one-sixth" of death's victims.

Consumption has destroyed more of the human family than any other disease, and the best physicians for many years have despaired of a cure, or a remedy that would heal the lungs, but for more than two hundred years the whole medical world has been impressed that there was a mysterious pwer and efficiency in the Pine Tree Tar to heal the lungs; therefore they have recommended the use of Tar Water, which in many cases had a good effect: but how to cambine the medical properties so as to heal the lungs, has ever been a mystery until it was discovered by Dr. L. Q. C. WISHART, of Philadelphia, Pa., the proprietor of "Wishart's Pine Tree Tar Cordial."

Many, not only of the people, but physicians of every school and practice, are daily asking me, "What is the principal or cause of your success in the treatment of Pulmonary Consumption?" My answer is this:

The invigoration of the digestive organs, the strengthening of the debilitated system, the purification and enrichment must expel from the system the corruption which scrofula breeds. While this is effected by the powerful alternative (changing from disease to health) properties of the Tar Cordial, its healing and renovateng principle is also acting upon the irritated surfaces of the lungs and throat, penetrating to each diseased part relieving pain, subduing inflamation, and restoring a healthful tendency. Let this two-fold power, the healing and the strengthening, continue to act in conjunction with Nature's constant recuparative tendency, and the patient is saved, if he has not too long delayed a resort to the means of cure.

I ask all to read the following certificates. They are from men and women of unquestionable worth and reputation.

DR. WISHART—Dear Sir:—I had a very dreaful cough and sore throat for one year, and my whole system was fast giving way, and I was prostrated on my bed with but little hope of recovering. My disease baffled the power of all medicines, and in a short time I must have gone to my grave, but thank God, my daughter-in-law would not rest until she went to your store, No. 10, N. Second street, and related my case to you, purchased one bottle of your Pine Tree Tar Cordial and I commenced to use it, and in one week I was much better, and after using three bottles I am perfectly well, and a wonder to all my friends, for they all pronounced me past cure. Publish my case if you think proper.

REBECCA HAMILTON,
No. 1321 Wylie street, Philadelphia.

Dr. Wishart's Pine Tree Tar Cordial is an infalliable cure for Bronchitis, Bleeding of the Lungs, Sore Throat and Breast, Inflamation of the Lungs.

MR. WARD says:

DR. WISHART—Sir:—I had Bronchitis, Inflammation of the Lungs, Shortness of Breath, and Palpitation of the Heart in their worst forms; I had been treated by several of the most eminent physicians in Philadelphia, but they could not stop the rapid course of my disease, and I dispared of ever being restored to health. I was truly on the verge of the grave. Your Pine Tree Tar Cordial was highly reccommended to me by a friend; I tried it, and am thankful to say that, after using four large and one small, bottles, I was restored to perfect health. You can give reference to my house, No. 968 N. Second street, or at my office of Recever of Taxes, form 9 A. M. to 2 P. M., corner of Chestnut and Sixth streets. JOHN WARD.

Read the following from Utica;

DR. WISHART—Dear Sir:—I take pleasure in informing you through this suorce that your Pine Tree Tar Cordial, which was reccommended for my daughter by Dr. J. H. Hall, of this city, has cured her of a cough of more than five months standing. I had thought her beyond cure, and had employed the best medical Aid without any benefit. I can cheerfully recommend for those similarly afflicted as I know of many other cases besides that of my daughter that it has entirely cured of long standing coughs. Yours respectfully. JOHN V. PARKER, Daguerrean Artist.

126 Genessee street, Utica, N. Y.

DISCOVERED AT LAST

CHEROKEE REMEDY
—AND—
CHEROKEE INJECTION!

Compounded from Barks, Roots & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic cures all diseases of the various organs, such as Incontinence of the Urine, Inflamation of the Bladder, Inflamation of the Kidneys, Stone in the Bladder, Stricture, Gravel, Gleet, Gunorrhea, and is especially recommended in those cases of Fluor Albus (or Whites in females) where all the old nauseous medicines have failed.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two teaspoonfuls three times per day.

It is diuretic and alternative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the Cherokee Remedy, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in all cases of Gonorhœa, Gleet, Fluor Albus or Whites. Its effect are healing soothing and demulcent; removing all scalding, heat, chordee and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack Injections.

By use of the Cherokee Remedy and Cherokee Injection—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

For full particulars get our pampelet from any drug store in the country, or write to us and we will mail free to any address, a full treatise.
